

Table of Contents

Introduction

Learner Outcomes.....i
Faculty.....ii
Video Instructions for Participants.....iii
Preface.....iv

Note-taking Outline

Study Notes for Video Segment 1.....1
Assessment Procedures.....2
Therapy.....5
Transfer Activities.....8

Appendix 1

Material from Barry Guitar, Stuttering: An Integrated Approach to its Nature and Treatment.

Fig 1.1 Factors contributing to the development of stuttering.....10
Fig 7.8 Stuttering case history form—child and preteen.....11
Fig 7.9 A–19 scale of children’s communication attitudes.....15
Tables 5.2 to 5.7 Characteristics of normal disfluency and borderline, beginning, intermediate, and advanced stuttering.....17
Characteristics of five developmental treatment levels.....18

Appendix 2

Material from Nina Reardon, “Stuttering: What’s it all about? Information for Educators.”

Introduction.....19
General Facts about Stuttering.....20
Causal vs. Precipitating Factors.....21
Variability/Cyclic Nature of Stuttering.....22
The Therapy Process.....24
Roles.....26
Managing Circumstances.....28

References.....30

CEU Registration Form

Self-Study CEU Test

Answer Sheet

Program Evaluation

*All reprinted materials in this manual are presented with the permission of the publisher.
Please refer to page numbers in the top right-hand corner of the manual.*